Trustee 1½ years—Julius Follstad

COUNTY OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Men who will Serve in Oneida During Next Two Years—Coroner Fails to Qualify.

The officials who during the next two years will serve the people of Oneida county were installed in their various offices at two o'clock, Monday afternoon. All of the officers with the exception of Frank Jillson, sheriff, and Carl Krueger, treasurer, succeed themselves.

W. W. Carr begins his fifth term as county clerk. He is well versed with every detail of the work and as before will be assisted by Mrs. Carr, who is equally efficient.

The duties of treasurer are by no means new to Mr. Krueger who served in this capacity for one term during the years 1899 and 1900. His past experience fits him well for the office.

Frank Jillson, the new sheriff, is too well known to the people of the city and county to need an introduction. He is certain to make an excellent official. Mr. Jillson has appointed as his under-sheriff N. T. Baldwin, who for the last two terms has been county treasurer.

E. C. Sturdevant has been clerk of the court for the last twelve years.
He will continue to devote his personal attention to the duties of the office and will in the future give as good satisfaction as in the past.

John J. Verage enters upon his second term as register of deeds. His record during the last two years has been most satisfactory and he will continue to serve the county in as able a manner. Mr. Verage has the distinction of being the only democrat holding county office.

During the time in which S. S. Miller has been district attorney he has proved a worthy official and the fact that he again succeeds himself is a splendid endorsement by the voters as to his past record.

D. H. Vaughan, the county surveyor has been elected to this office several terms without opposition. He is one of the most capable men in his line in the state.

John Mecikalski, who was elected to the office of coroner, failed to qualify by reason of his removal from the county. At present this office remains vacant.

RICHARD WESLEY DEAD.

Former Well Known Rhineland Man Expires At Eveleth, Minn.

The friends in Rhineland of Richard Wesley were sorry to learn of his death at Eveleth, Minn., Tuesday.
The sad news was received by the family in this city that evening and Clarence Wesley, a son, departed yesterday morning for Eveleth to accompany the remains here for burial.

Up to the time of going to press arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

Mr. Wesley was numbered among the early residents of Rhineland and was engaged in business here for several years. For the last few years he had been located at Eveleth. His health for some time had not been of the best.

A wife, one daughter and three sons, who reside at 632 Dorr Avenue, survive him. The sympathy of the community is extended to them in their bereavement.

DR. STONE TO SPEAK.

Dr. S. R. Stone will deliver an address at the Congregational church next Sunday evening. His subject will be "Ventilation And Dress." The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

AGAIN CLOSE AT SIX O'CLOCK.

Six Rhineland Merchants Resumed Old Custom On Monday Evening.

The early closing movement has again gone into effect in Rhineland.
Monday evening six of the merchants on Brown Street closed their stores at six o'clock. They represented three dry goods firms and three hardware companies.

Last fall at the beginning of the busy season it was decided by these merchants to keep their stores open until eight o'clock evenings and to again close at six after New Years.
During the holidays it would have been impossible to close at six o'clock owing to the many shoppers who were unable to do their trading in the day time. As before, on Wednesday and Saturday evenings of each week the stores will remain open.

The early closing is welcomed by both the proprietors and clerks, who like other human beings who labor, believe that they are entitled to a rest after they have finished a day's work at six o'clock.

FUNDS NOT AVAILABLE FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Forest Reserve Lands Cause Decrease In Town Treasuries—County Board Acts On Matter

At the session of the County Board held in Rhineland this week the members appointed District Attorney S. S. Miller to appear before the next session of the legislature at Madison and assist in an effort to have a law enacted whereby the state will bear a certain proportion of taxes on its forest reserve lands.

In Oneida county alone the state owns large tracts of these lands which of course are exempt from taxation.
Thus the revenue of the various towns in which the tracts are located is considerably decreased. The tax money received from private property owners is scarcely enough to meet the necessary running expenses of the towns and there remains no fund for improvement purposes. Many farmers residing in these towns are forced to bear more than their burden of taxation in order to meet the expenses of schools and other public necessities.
Every acquisition of forest reserve lands means a loss to the town treasury. Not only in Oneida but in numerous other counties does this condition prevail.

At the board meeting this matter came up for a lengthy discussion and as a result it was deemed advisable to send Mr. Miller to Madison to see what can be accomplished toward remedying the evil. It is proposed to require the state to pay a sufficient amount on its lands to help defray the improvement expenses of the towns in which such tracts are situated.

It is expected that this movement will result in a spirited fight in the legislature this winter.

LOCAL SPORTSMEN TO MEET.

Game Warden Martin Berg of this city requests that the sportsmen of Rhineland meet at the council rooms tomorrow (Friday evening) for the purpose of discussing changes in the game laws.

It has recently been proposed by several well known sportsmen in various parts of the state to limit the number of deer killed by each hunter to one. It has also been suggested to license all non-resident fishermen. As these proposed changes will be acted at the next session of the legislature it is deemed advisable to ascertain the views of all people interested.

O'NEIL PRESIDES AT CIRCUIT COURT

Judge of Seventeenth Circuit Takes Place of Reid Who Is Disqualified to Hear Cases.

A session of circuit court for Oneida county convened in this city Tuesday forenoon. Judge O'Neill of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit is presiding. The cases being heard are those continued from the fall term.
Owing to the fact that in these cases E. H. Reid figured as attorney at the time he was appointed judge, he was disqualified from presiding. At that time the judge was a member of the law firm of Reid, Smart & Curtis of Merrill. Following are the cases on the calendar to be disposed of at this session:

Kate Pier	vs.	Robert Posey
C. H. Roemer	vs.	Smart & Curtis
S. S. Miller	vs.	Land & Loan Co.
L. A. Doolittle	vs.	S. S. Miller
L. A. Doolittle	vs.	Oneida County
L. A. Doolittle	vs.	S. S. Miller
L. A. Doolittle	vs.	Oneida County
Guaranteed In-	vs.	Oneida County
vestment Co.	vs.	S. S. Miller
Land & Loan Co.	vs.	O. A. Hilger-
	vs.	mann et al.
	vs.	D. H. Walker
Smart & Curtis	vs.	Minnie Winner-
F. A. Winner-	vs.	man
Smart & Curtis	vs.	H. J. Killelea
S. C. Herbst	vs.	Land & Loan Co.
Nath Perlele Sons	vs.	Smart & Curtis

The cases in which Oneida county appears as defendant are tax cases involving taxes in the town of Minocqua. The plaintiffs claim that the levies made by the town board were excessive and illegal. The others are tax title cases.

ONCE A SOO BRAKEMAN.

E. Walsh, Famous National League Pitcher, Known Among Railroad Boys.

It is not generally known, perhaps that "Big Ed." Walsh, a famous member of the pitching staff of the Chicago National League base ball team, was at one time a brakeman on the Soo line and has a number of friends among the railroad boys in Rhineland. Walsh worked between Gladstone and Sault Ste Marie.

Dan Duple of Manistique, recently met Walsh on the train and had an interesting conversation with him.
Mr. Duple was well acquainted with the base ball star when he was on the Soo line, but he was not aware that Walsh, the pitcher, and Walsh, the brakeman, were the same person.
Walsh was wearing diamonds and appeared prosperous. He is said to have received a total of $12,000 for his season's work last year, which is rather more than was his income while riding box cars.

OLD RESIDENT LIES.

Joseph Rollin Sr., an old resident of this city, died Monday morning at his home on the South Side. His demise was due to a complication of diseases. He was over eighty years of age. Two sons, Joseph Jr., and George Rollin survive him.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from St. Mary's church.
The old gentleman had many friends who deeply regret his death.

PAPER ON TUBERCULOSIS

A paper on Tuberculosis was read by Dr. C. A. Richards at the Congregational church, Sunday evening.
The paper had been well prepared and was listened to with deep interest by a crowd which more than comfortably filled the big edifice. Dr. Richards has taken an active part in the present campaign against tuberculosis and has been at the head of the movement in this city.

CHARITY BALL A SUCCESS.

One Hundred and Twenty Couples Attend Event Given by Catholic Societies.

One of the pleasantest events held in Rhineland this season was the charity ball at the Armory last Thursday evening. The affair was given by the combined Catholic organizations of this city. One hundred and twenty couples were in attendance. For this occasion the hall had been prettily decorated with various colored bunting. Dozens of red and green electric lights added to the brilliance of the scene. The high quality of the music rendered by the Military orchestra caused much pleasing comment. At twelve o'clock supper was served in the Armory dining hall by the Catholic ladies.

The committees who had the ball in charge feel well satisfied with the financial success of the undertaking.
About sixty dollars was cleared. As previously announced this money will be donated toward the building fund for the orphan's asylum for the diocese of Superior to be erected at Superior.

WRECK ON SOO LINE.

Passenger Train 84 Crashes Into Way Freight Near Marine.

Train number 84, the Soo line passenger which arrives in Rhineland at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, collided with the rear end of a way freight near Marine, a small station Tuesday.
The locomotive and mail car on 84 were badly damaged. The only person reported hurt was the fireman and his injuries are not serious.

Particulars of the wreck were difficult to obtain. It is said that the way freight, running ahead of the passenger train, was endeavoring to make Marine in time to side track. A flagman had been sent out to notify the engineer on 84 who immediately slackened the speed of his train. It was when rounding a curve that the smash up occurred and the running slowly the train could not be stopped in time to avoid the collision.

The wreck delayed traffic on the road for several hours.

TO LICENSE PEDDLERS.

The first meeting of the city council for the new year was held Tuesday evening. Among other business was the introduction of an ordinance by Alderman Barnes licensing "hawkers", peddlers and transient merchants to do business in the city of Rhineland. The local merchants have long been clamoring for the passage of such an ordinance.
The matter was once before brought before the council but was turned down. The ordinance now appears in a more moderate form and it is the opinion that it will be passed at the next meeting. It is published in another column of this issue.

THIRTY BELOW ZERO.

A cold wave drifted down from the arctic regions Tuesday night and caused the mercury to take a sudden drop. Wednesday morning the government thermometer at the substation registered 30 below and this (Thursday) morning was 25 below. This is the coldest yet recorded this winter. Many water pipes were frozen in various parts of the city and the plumbers have since been kept very busy.

TO BUILD NEW HOSPITAL.

Sister Margaret, who for several years has been in control of a hospital at Minocqua, was in the city, Monday. She has just returned from a very successful collecting trip thru the western states. To a New North representative she said that she intends to erect a new hospital at Duluth, Minn.

COMPLAIN ON SERVICE

Several complaints came to The New North office this week regarding the night baggage service at the Northwestern depot in this city. Last Sunday evening when the crowd of students were returning to their respective schools, it is said that it was impossible to find a baggage man to check their baggage. As a consequence many trunks and suit cases remained unchecked and had to be sent to their owners the following day. If such conditions exist at the Rhinelander station the railway company should perfect a remedy. If no night baggage man is now employed one should be engaged, or if the company does employ a man in this position and he is unable to handle the rush of business he should be given an assistant. This is not the first time that complaint has been heard.

WILL BUILD IN SPRING.

INDIGESTION IS ENDED FOREVER

Misery From An Upset Stomach Vanishes Five Minutes Later.

Why not start now—today, and forever rid yourself of Stomach trouble and Indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapepsin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of Gas or eructations of undigested food, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and Dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of Indigestion and Upset Stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take Gas from Stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and besides, one triangle will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapepsin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to begin taking Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapepsin, because you want to be thoroughly cured of Indigestion.

ORDINANCE.

An ordinance relating to licensing "hawkers", Peddlers and Transient Merchants in the City of Rhinelander. The Mayor and Common Council, of the City of Rhinelander do ordain as follows:

Section 1. No person shall engage in or follow the business of a "hawker" or peddler by Section 1501 Revised Statutes of Wisconsin, or the business of a transient merchant as defined by Chapter 490 of the Laws of Wisconsin for the year 1905, within the City of Rhinelander without first having obtained license for that purpose as herein provided.

Section 2. The amount of license to be paid by every such peddler, "hawker" or transient merchant is hereby fixed at the sum of $5.00 per day for each day that such person may be engaged in carrying on his business.

Section 3. The application for a license as such "hawker", peddler or transient merchant shall be made in writing to the City Clerk upon blanks to be furnished for that purpose and upon the filing of such application and the presentation to said Clerk of a receipt from the City Treasurer showing the payment of the license fee herein provided, the City Clerk shall issue to such applicant a license authorizing the person therein named to engage in the business of "hawker", peddler or transient merchant within such city for the number of days for which said license fee has been paid which number of days shall be stated in said license.

Section 4. If complaint be made to the Mayor of said City that any person doing business therein is a transient merchant and such person shall claim to be a permanent merchant, he may be required as a condition of transacting business within the City, without the payment of a license fee

DECEMBER 5, 1908 THE LUCKY DAY

Cash tickets dated December 5th, 1908, are redeemable at this store for their full face value in cash. As anticipated this "Lucky Day" plan proved a business getter, and we are well satisfied with the results. The cash sales for December 5th, amounted to $57.75 and everybody holding tickets for that day will receive their money back if presented at this store.

Our Annual Sale

Commences January 9th and lasts for 30 days. Every item at very special prices. We have no baits to throw out, we only ask you to come inside and look our prices over for this 30 days. We will show you what we call a SPECIAL SALE.

to the City, to give bond to said City in the sum of $500.00 with sureties to be approved by the City Clerk, to secure the State and local license in the event that he fails to become a permanent merchant of the City and such bond shall be enforced by the City Attorney in behalf of the City in case of breach thereof, and upon its collection the amount of the State license shall be paid to the State Treasurer and the remainder paid into the City Treasury and become a part of the License Fund.

Section 5. Every person who shall engage in or follow the business of "hawker", peddler or transient merchant within the city of Rhinelander without having paid the per diem fee herein provided and obtained license pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00 and in default of the payment of such fine shall be imprisoned in the county jail of Oneida county, for a period not exceeding sixty days for each offense.

Section 6. The provisions of this ordinance shall not apply to farmers or other persons selling at private sale any produce or other articles raised or manufactured by them.

Section 7. This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force from and after its passage and publication. Introduced by ald. Chas. F. Barnes. The above ordinance was introduced at the last regular meeting of the Common Council of the city of Rhinelander, and was upon motion deferred and ordered published and will come up for final consideration and passage at their next regular meeting to be held on the first Tuesday of February 1909.

GUST SWEDBERG, City Clerk.

Miss Lucy Dayton returned Tuesday night to Downer College.

WANTED TO BUY BLACK FOX.

Warren Reed of the American Express Company received Monday, from Dr. C. C. French a naturalist of Washington, D. C., a draft for $200.00, with which to purchase of Earl Richards a black fox. A cage in which to ship the animal was also sent. Unfortunately the fox had been killed a few days previous and Earl is now mourning his bad luck. The fox was pure black except for a white tip on the end of its tail, and was a valuable specimen. The hide is worth about eighty dollars.

HONORS NOW EVEN

In the game of indoor base ball at the Armory, last Friday evening, the Fats again defeated the Leans. The score stood 15 to 17. A fair sized audience witnessed the game which was one of the best of the season. Four games have now been played between the Fats and the Leans, each team winning two. This makes honors even and a return match will probably be held for the championship.

The Y. M. C. A. team will meet the Fats at the Armory this evening.

DONNERSTAG TRIAL JANUARY 12.

Two of the Donnerstag brothers who have been confined in the Rock county jail at Janesville on the charge of counterfeiting have been removed to Madison and will be placed on trial in the federal court there January 12. The third brother is still confined in the hospital at Janesville. Deputy United States Marshall Appleby arrived in the city this morning and is spending the day subpoenaing witnesses on the case.

Dept.
Store

We take great pleasure in announcing to the people of Rhinelander and vicinity SALES. This will be by all odds the greatest bargain-giving event and greatest profit-ever held in this city, and both of these most liberal trade concessions shall be shared by friends and customers. This sale, with its unmatched prices and its profit-sharing coupon is made to that end that within two weeks from the opening day fully half our present stock of goods be distributed among the homes of this locality. The prices in every stock in the store have been marked down for this Great Coupon Sale, and among the items offered you'll find many of the best ever offered, in this state by any merchandising institution.

There are sixteen of them around the border of this announcement. Read each one carefully. You will see that they are as good as any money Uncle Sam ever made, for the purchase of merchandise at this store. It really is very much like finding money for you to take advantage of the unusual prices that will prevail at this sale, where you will find thousands of dollars worth of goods marked at much less than market value, and at the same time USE THESE FREE COUPONS IN PART PAYMENT THEREOF. Was ever a more liberal proposition held out by any store anywhere? In many instances we are not only dispensing with immediate profits, but SHARING PART OF THE PRINCIPAL with you. Let us urge you to not look at this matter lightly. DON'T LOSE THIS ADVERTISEMENT WITH ITS COUPONS. Save the coupons AT ALL HAZARDS. The sale prices named below will not prevail longer than date named, for the simple reason that many of the bargain lots cannot last longer. "Mattie," said Miss Porter's bachelor brother, who had recently surprised his sister very much by becoming engaged to be married. "I wish you'd select an umbrella for Alma.
I found out the last time I visited her that she needed one."

"But Donald," protested his sister,
"I haven't the least idea what Alma likes. It's rather difficult to choose things for one I've never seen."

"Well," said Donald, faintly, for he was very much in love, "your tastes and hers must be a good deal alike, for you both seem to like me." Sister Mattie sniffed rather con-temptuously, but made no further objection to the task imposed upon her.
She shopped painstakingly and finally bought a handsome black silk umbrella, which was slightly reduced in price owing to a fancy border, which the clerk assured her was still very stylish, though not quite the latest touch.

It was so pretty and attractive that she felt sure Alma would be delighted with it. She knew she would be herself. Notwithstanding her pretended scorn, Donald's remark that she and Alma must be a good deal alike had given her a pleasant impression that perhaps their tastes might be similar.

When Donald brought his wife home after a brief wedding trip his sister awoke very quickly to the fact that there were a great many more points of difference than of resemblance between the new sisters-in-law. Pretty Alma was not at all like plain, practical Mattie. The latter could not but marvel that her staid brother could feel at home with such a pleasure-loving creature. Still, the same personal charm that had attracted him won her heart also and she gave the little bride a warm welcome.

"Alma," said Donald the day after their arrival, "I have not seen your umbrella since we came. Do you know where it is?"

"No, I haven't the slightest idea," answered Alma, with no concern whatever in her soft voice.

"Do you remember whether we had it in the cab when we came up from the station?"

"No, I think we didn't have it then, Donald. Don't worry about it now, for you know you promised to take Mattie and me out in the parks.
Don't you think you ought to be telephoning for a carriage or an automobile? Do get an automobile if you can. That's a ducky dear."

Dignified Donald a ducky dear! Sister Mattie gasped, but her brother looked foolishly happy and went obediently to the telephone in the next room.

"There," said Alma, confidentially, when she and Mattie were left alone together, "I hope he'll forget about that umbrella. I said I hadn't the slightest idea where it was and I hadn't, because I left it on the train before we changed cars at Detroit, and now it may be traveling all around the east looking for its unfortunate owner.
I made up my mind the minute Donald gave me that umbrella that I would lose it very soon. It was such a disappointment when I had let him know I wanted one, for him to bring me a perfectly hideous thing. Poor old Don is a darling, but he hasn't any more taste than a cow, has he?
The idea of his buying that umbrella with a fancy border. Of course, I just couldn't carry it, could I?"

"Not if it did violence to your entire nature, I suppose," answered Mattie, thinking with some grimness of the weary hours she had passed shopping for that offending article.

A week later Donald came in beaming one afternoon and saying: "I've got a surprise for you, Alma. Guess what it is."

"Oh, is it one of those lovely bracelets I admired so much in New York?"
"No, it's nothing like that," said Donald.

"An electric runabout? You know I'm wild for a little runabout."

"We could hardly afford an automobile, just now," said Donald, with gravity. "You're guessing a little above the mark."

"Well, theater tickets for tonight."
"No, you were to the theater night before last, and we decided not to go more than once a week."

"You decided," corrected Alma. "I never make hard and fast rules."

"Well, what do you think I have for you?" persisted Donald, still inveterate on the pleasure of the surprise.

"A big box of chocolates?"
"No, you'll never guess. See here."

He went into the hall and returned triumphantly bearing the lost umbrella. "I telegraphed all over the country until I traced it," he said.

"Oh," murmured Alma, dully.

Mattie, who rarely laughs, astonished her brother by her merriment.

Phosphorescent Tree.

People walking in a wood in the Wishaw district, near Glasgow, after dark, were startled the other night by what they took to be an apparition in the wood. On making investigation they found the trunk of an ash tree in an upright position giving forth a light resembling phosphorescence, but more brilliant. Those who have visited the spot stoutly insist that the tree's light is more of an incandescent brightness, sufficient for the reading of print in its vicinity. Large crowds were attracted to the place to witness the spectacle, while young people secured chips of the tree and wore them on their clothes in the dark.

SIMPLE RECIPE IN RHEUMATISM

Splendid Recipe for Home-Made Rheumatism and Kidney Cure.

To relieve the worst forms of Rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract, Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

These harmless ingredients can be obtained from our home druggists, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

This prescription forces the clogged up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism.

As Rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life, this simple recipe will do doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

It is said that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorders or Rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescriptions which really relieve are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Beginning Jan. 11, 1909, the Star Meat Market will be conducted on a strictly weekly cash basis.

All meat bills due every Monday.
No goods charged for more than one week. Don't forget this. Circumstances compel me to do this. As I must pay cash for my goods and a strictly cash business is inconvenient to a great many of my patrons I take this means to avoid that trouble. I hope this arrangement will meet the approval of a majority of my friends and patrons and I hope to be favored with your patronage in the future as in the past.

I will strive to give you the best of service and meats in return for this favor.

Yours at Phone 103,
W. J. MORGAN.

Came Near Choking to Death.

A little boy, the son of Chris. D.
Peterson, a well known resident of the village of Jacksonville, Iowa, had a sudden and violent attack of croup.
Much thick stringy phlegm came up after giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Peterson says: "I think he would have choked to death had we not given him this remedy." For

WOODMEN LODGE GROWING.

Lake (Camp 1749 M. W. A. of this city is one of the largest Woodmen Camps in point of membership in Northern Wisconsin. The lodge now has over two hundred members and is still growing at a rapid rate. New candidates are being received into the order at each meeting.

With 931 new camps established and a gain of 64,827 members during the first ten months of the year, the order is nearing the million mark of membership, the report of the head camp for Oct. 31 showing a membership in good standing of 996,899, but 3,161 less than a million, which mark has been set for the year's advancement.

Miss Mary McIlroe returned Sunday night to New London.

FROM NEARBY TOWNS.

Wausau—The authorities here arrested two girls giving their names as Schneider and turned them over to the Tomahawk authorities for alleged robbery in a hotel there. The police claim the girls' trunk contained many articles of jewelry, dress goods and fancy notions several silk patterns and $50 in cash.

Medford—John Olsen was killed by a Wisconsin Central passenger train.
He was driving a logging sprinker and was crossing the track when the train struck him.

Florence—Stanley Smith, a former resident of this city, was killed by an underground explosion at the Commonwealth Iron company exploration number 2 at Stambough. Twenty-two fifty pound boxes of dynamite exploded in some mysterious manner and Smith who was working nearby had the top of his head blown off.

Oconto—Wm. Flynn, a saloon keeper of Breed, this county, has been brought over for trial on a charge of manslaughter. Flynn, it is alleged murdered an Indian named Mose Kockwitch by striking him on the head with a club, Oct. 26. The Indian died the next day at his home on the Menominee reservation.

Ironwood—The Northwestern Railway company will erect a new freight depot here next spring. The structure is to cost $10,000.

Antigo—The Antigo hospital has been sold by Doctors Stephens and Williamson to Misses Elizabeth Mueller and Emily Buchen. Miss Mueller has been head nurse at the hospital for several years.

Ashland—Bertha Tracy, a negro, pleaded guilty to a charge of abduction and was sentenced by Judge Parish to twenty months in the state prison. The woman induced two young girls to leave their home here and go with her to Duluth.

Antigo—T. W. Hogan has formally announced his candidacy for the judgeship of this circuit. He has the support of the Langlade county bar association which has decided to back him against Judge Goodland, the incumbent.

Superior—The first Wisconsin Central train left Superior at 6:30 o'clock for Ladysmith and the first train arrived here at 2 o'clock. The south bound train conductor was Wm. Babler, the north bound conductor was Geo. Cardiff and engineer, Ole Lee.
One hundred and six members of the Ladysmith Commercial club came up on the train and were met at the station by a committee of the Superior Commercial club headed by I. L.
Lenroot. A banquet was held at the Commercial club on their arrival.

ODANAH—John Gillick, a Bohemian, committed suicide by blowing out his brains with a revolver. The deed was committed in the presence of his family.

A WHITTLED OF ANIMALS.

Knut Torkelson, who is employed in McKinley's camps at Dunham, Mich., is a natural born wood artist.
His instinct in whittling animals out of wood with a jack knife is rather peculiarly developed and his handiwork is of a superior class for an untrained hand. James McKinley brought down some of his work last week which consisted of a match safe and plaque, with animals in relief upon them, all made from one piece of wood. Some time ago he made a pair of Blacksmith pinclers out of one piece, without any rivet. He is now whittling out a life-size head of a Texas steer during his odd moments after working hours.—Vilas County

ACTIVE CAMPAIGN AGAINST DISEASE

More Work Done Last Year Than Ever Before In Attempt to wipe Out Tuberculosis.

Measured by dollars, the campaign against tuberculosis in the United States during the year 1908, has cost well over a million. Measured in the number of workers, the campaign has enlisted hundreds of thousands in its ranks. Measured by the number of institutions and organizations that have been established during the year 1908, more work of this sort has been accomplished than during the entire period before Jan. 1 of the year just closing. For instance, before Jan. 1, 1909, there were only 19 dispensaries in the United States providing special treatment for tuberculosis cases. Up to the year 1903, this number had increased to slightly over 100.
During the year 1908 alone, over 100 dispensaries providing special treatment for tuberculosis patients have been opened. The number of tuberculosis sanatoriums and hospitals opened in the year 1908 is more than 80, a figure which is four times that of the amount of progress shown in this line in any other year before 1908. The number of associations having for their object the study or prevention of consumption, established during the year 1908, totals up to 120, which figure again is more than the entire number which had previously been established in the United States.

Of the influences which have contributed to produce the result probably the most weighty has been the international Congress on Tuberculosis which was held in Washington during the latter part of September and the first part of October, attracting as it did the attention of men and women in every state in the Union.
Representatives were present from almost every section of the country, and the benefit derived from this inspiring gathering has doubtless given the greatest impetus to activity in the fight against consumption that this country has ever experienced.
The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis by means of its constant propaganda and its two traveling exhibits, has also helped to contribute to the success of the campaign. Particularly is this so in regard to the work being carried on in the South. The Red Cross Stamp Campaign, with its 25-000,000 stamps has been one of the greatest mediums of education on tuberculosis as well as a means of raising money that has ever been used in this country.

Cured of a Severe Attack of Bronchitis By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"On October 18th, last, my little three year old daughter contracted a severe cold which resulted in a bad case of bronchitis," says Mrs. W. G.
Gibson, Lexington, Ky. "She lost the power of speech completely and was a very sick child. Fortunately we had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and gave it to her according to the printed directions. On the second day she was a great deal better, and on the fifth day, October 23rd, she was entirely well of her cold and bronchitis, which I attribute to this splendid medicine. I recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unreservedly as I have found it the surest, safest and quickest cure for colds, both for children and adults, of any I have ever used." For sale by

A Religious Author's Statement.

For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy.

MAKES A FLOATING COMPASS.

Peculiarity of Magnetized Needle When Placed in Water.

If a thoroughly dry and clean sewing needle is very carefully laid on the surface of the water in a basin the needle will float in spite of the high density of steel—seven or eight times that of water.

On close inspection it is found that the surface of the water is depressed under the needle, very much as if there were a thin film stretched over the water, and slightly indented by the weight of the needle. This property of liquids, of offering a certain assistance to a force exerted upon their surface, is termed "surface extension." The magnitude of the force of surface tension varies from one liquid to another. It is greatest in the case of mercury. The cause of the phenomenon must probably be looked for in the attraction of the liquid molecules to one another. A sewing needle, thus floating upon water, may be used as a compass, if it has previously been magnetized. It will then point north and south, and will maintain this position if the containing vessel is moved about; if the needle is displaced by force it will return to its position along the magnetic meridian as soon as the restraint is removed.

THE PRINCE PROPOSES

By Alice M. Richards

Cinderella's green table-cloth train swept out majestically behind her. Upon her head lunched a Paris creation donated by the Fairy Godmother, while in her hand awaited a deliriously decorated fan obtained from the soda water fountain around the corner. At her side scuffled the Prince, a red bunting sash wound jauntily about his waist, a gold paper crown set at a rakish tilt upon his red hair. The stepsisters, consumed with an envy that approached wonderfully near to realism, followed in their wake.

"Now, Tommy, I'm going to drop it and run," whispered Cinderella. Cinderella was barelegged, but a pair of gay Turkish slippers stopped on her feet. A moment later one of these reposed upon the pathway and Cinderella was bounding up the steps of the porch, her train streaming out behind her. The stepsisters sniffed contemptuously as the Prince glared down at the slipper, surprise and well-meant hilarity mingled in his freckled face.

"Pick it up, stupid," prompted a sepulchral voice from the vine-covered piazza.

A few minutes later, two pages, who bore a striking resemblance to the stepsisters of a moment before, tottered up the path carrying between them a fat denim cushion, on which lay the slipper. Behind them stalked the Prince, his wooden sword clanking martially upon the gravel. Cautiously setting down their burden, the pages, with admirable unconcern, proceeded to resume their true characters—that of the jealous stepsisters. Giggling immoderately, they strove in vain to claim the slipper. The Prince was gradually becoming restless. A sheepish look stole over his face and longing glances were cast across his shoulder. He backed stealthily toward the steps. Alarmed at these signs of a craven spirit, Cinderella emerged hastily from among the vines and, mincing across the porch, slipped coyly at the Prince, who sulked openly, and backed closer to the steps. Foot outstretched, petrified dignity, Cinderella waited the climax. The stepsisters snickered.

"Tommy," whispered the nearest one, "you old silly, put it on and brace her and say: 'Cinderella, wilt thou be mine?'"

"Hurry up, she's gettin' mad."

"Aw, gwan, Tommy, please."

But Tommy, with a gesture horrifying to his feminine audience, had fled down the path, tearing off his insignia of royalty as he went. Cinderella stamped her foot. At the sound the Fairy Godmother appeared in the doorway.

"O, Aunt May, isn't Tommy mean? Every single time we play Cinderella he spoils it all at the end!"

"Spoils it all," echoed the stepsisters.

"I just think he might put it on once," stormed Cinderella. She also tore off her robes of state and flung them from her.

"See it I don't get even on him, horrid old thing!" and away flew the injured maiden, hot in pursuit of the recreant Prince. Amid voluble discussion of the situation, the stepsisters and the Fairy Godmother collected the royal belongings.

"Well, Cinderella, how about it? Did the ball come up to your expectations?"

Cinderella, standing straight and slim in the moonlight, watched the Prince struggle with the latch of the gate, which refused to fasten. She laughed softly.

"Why, silly, of course. Didn't the stepsisters look magnificent? They quite cast me in the shade. Please, Tommy, come on and never mind that gate. I'm cold."

There was no reply. Cinderella shivered audibly and drew her fluffy wrap more closely about her.

"You are quite as stubborn as ever, sir. I'm going in." She tripped up the gravel pathway and into the house.

A moment later the Prince slammed the gate with a triumphant click and hurried after her, but at the steps he paused and gave a surprised little whistle. Something black and shiny and small lay upon the middle stair. He thrust his hands deep in his pockets and regarded it for a full minute with thoughtful eyes. Then his lips tightened in sudden resolution.

"By Jove! I'll do it now," he exclaimed to the article before him. Stooping quickly, he caught it up, and walked slowly into the house. On the stairs sat Cinderella, her chin sunk deep in her palm, one foot curled up under her. The warm glow from the half lamp above fell directly upon her bright hair and upturned face. Her eyes gleamed in mischievous challenge. The Prince moved across the hall and, leaning against the newel post, looked steadily down at her. Shy panic flew into her eyes. A quick breath stirred the soft lace of her gown. She cast a longing look up the stairway behind her and followed it by an effort to rise. In another moment the slipper had dropped to the floor, the arms of the Prince were about her, and the lips of the Prince were murmuring very close to her ear: "Cinderella, dear, wilt thou be mine?"

"Oh, Me, I'm Glad I'm Free!"

"Funny thing about a woman."

"What?"

"She'll scream at a mouse, yet not turn a hair over a dressmaker's bill that makes her husband's teeth chatter."—Boston Transcript.
